MAY 6TH - THE NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

An annual day of observance held on the first Thursday of May, designated by the United States Congress, when people are asked "to turn to God in prayer and meditation". The president is required by law to sign a proclamation each year, encouraging all Americans to pray on this day. The modern law formalizing its annual observance was enacted in 1952, although earlier days of fasting and prayer had been established by the Second Continental Congress from 1775 until 1783, and by President John Adams in 1798 and 1799.

The constitutionality of the National Day of Prayer was unsuccessfully challenged in court by the Freedom From Religion Foundation after their first attempt was unanimously dismissed by a federal appellate court in April 2011. So, regardless of your beliefs, why not say a prayer of thanks for all the blessings we do have, especially in today's trying times?

MAY 9TH - MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's Day is observed in different forms throughout the world, & Mother's Day 2021 occurs on Sunday, May 9, in the United States. The American incarnation of Mother's Day was created by Anna Jarvis in 1908 & became an official U.S. holiday in 1914. Jarvis would later denounce the holiday's commercialization & spent the latter part of her life trying to remove it from the calendar. While dates & celebrations vary, Mother's Day traditionally involves presenting moms with flowers, cards & other gifts.

DID YOU KNOW?

More phone calls are made on Mother's Day than any other day of the year. These holiday chats with Mom often cause phone traffic to spike by as much as 37 percent!

MAY 12TH - NURSES DAY!

Organized annually by the International Council of Nurses (ICN), International Nurses Day celebrates the contribution that nurses make to societies around the world. The date of May 12th has strong significance, being the birthday of perhaps the world's most famous nurse, Florence Nightingale. Alongside the encouragement of fully deserved congratulations owed to nurses, the organization also produces an International Nurses Day Kit to educate and assist health workers around the world, with a different theme each year. The ICN has chosen the theme "Nurses: A Voice to Lead – a Vision For Future Healthcare" for International Nurses Day 2021! For more info visit www.icn.ch.
